Parents in Partnership assists parents to:

- learn about valuable resources
- plan ahead for their child and family
- Enjoy time with other parents
- learn more within the topics of: health care, education, policy making, inclusion and self-determination as well as other subject matter of interest to this particular group of parents
- strengthen partnerships between the many professionals they interact with on behalf of their children
- work on their own family or community project

Registration, food, overnight accommodations, and resources are paid for with a
